

SERMON STUDY QUESTIONS

JULY 2, 2107

- 1. Why is it important that we distinguish between the imperative and the indicative?
- 2. What are the differences between the universal and definite theories of the atonement?
- 3. Did Jesus' work on the cross secure anyone's salvation or only make salvation possible?
- 4. What is John's basis for the commands that he gives?
- 5. How has John described what having fellowship with God is like?
- 6. What does John mean when he says that the love of God is perfected?
- 7. Why does John say he is writing no new commandment and then say he is writing a new commandment? Where elsewhere in John's writings is this mentioned?
- 8. How important is the mark of love in the lives of believers? What does its presence say to the believer about themselves?